

53-roborift

We are making a parking management system using esp8226 and web server which helps to detect vacant slots in a parking with multiple number of slots. It provides real time data on the vacant spots available in the parking through the use of infrared sensors .

The out pin of each IR sensor is connected in order to the D0-D9 pins of esp8266 module